

ACADEMIC YEAR

The academic year consists of fall and spring semesters, which extend from August to June, plus winter and summer sessions, that begin in January and June, respectively. The calendar for the 2021-2022 academic year appears in the front of the catalog. Courses offered during the various terms are similar in scope and maintain equivalent standards.