ENE-60 — MATH FOR ENGINEERING TECHNOLOGY

About This Course

3.00 units

Prerequisite: None.

Description: A course in mathematical problems frequently used by students enrolled in the trade and industrial and engineering programs. A review of basic arithmetic, linear measurement, basic algebra, basic plane geometry, trigonometry, and compound angles. 54 hours lecture. (Letter Grade, or Pass/No Pass option)