

ESL-90L — SPECIAL TOPICS IN ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE: PUNCTUATION OF PHRASES AND CLAUSES

About This Course

2.00 units

Prerequisite: None., Advisory: Qualification for or enrollment in ESL 53 or higher.

Description: Provides students with the conventions of punctuation use in American English. Enhances the students competence in identifying types of phrases and clauses in English and in using proper punctuation in compound and complex sentence structures.

36 hours lecture. (Non-degree credit course) (Pass/No Pass only)