

EST-24 — CALIFORNIA ELECTRICAL CODES

About This Course

3.00 units

Prerequisite: None

Description: A study of California Building and Electrical Codes used for construction, maintenance, and use of buildings and grounds within the State. Emphasis on understanding and application of code sections and provisions, and the relationships between building and electrical codes. 54 hours lecture. (Letter grade only)