

HUM-5H — HONORS ARTS AND IDEAS: THE RENAISSANCE THROUGH THE MODERN ERA

About This Course

Transfer: UC, CSU

3.00 units

Prerequisite: None., Advisory: REA-83 and qualification for English 1A

Limitation on enrollment: Enrollment in Honors Program.

Description: An interdisciplinary study of the cultural movements in art, architecture, literature, music, philosophy, photography, cinema, media, and religion of Western civilization. The cultural achievements of the Renaissance, Enlightenment, Romantic, Modern and post-Modern periods are studied to develop an understanding of their philosophical ideas, values, cultural meaning, artistic form, and contributions to modern thought. This Honors course offers an enriched experience for accelerated students by means of limited class size, seminar format, discussions and projects generated and led by students, a focus on primary texts in translation, and the applications of higher-level thinking and writing skills analysis, synthesis, and evaluation. Students may not receive credit for both HUM-5 and HUM-5H. 54 hours lecture. (Letter grade only)
