

NRN-21C — NURSING LEARNING LABORATORY

About This Course

2.00 units

Prerequisite: None., Advisory: NRN-21.

Limitation on Enrollment: Must be enrolled in the Associate Degree Nursing Program.

Description: An on-campus laboratory designed for structured practice and mastery of nursing skills necessary for providing safe patient-centered care. Provides instructional guidance to assist students to refine newly acquired skills and develop the competency level expected of intermediate level nursing students. Various multimedia and computer assisted instructional materials, which support the student learning outcomes will be assigned. Provides additional lab hours for students requiring remediation or additional practice to master nursing skills. 108 hours laboratory. (TBA option)(Non-degree credit) (Pass/No Pass only.)